

Market News

JOHNSTON, SC

OUR SIXTH ANNUAL JOHNSTON FARMER'S & ARTIST'S MARKET THURSDAY AFTERNOON'S 4 to 6 PM

Visit us on Calhoun Street in front of the Library/Warehouse building
BUY LOCAL

Thursday, August 27th, our local vendors will bring lots of goodies for you to peruse. Meet the vendors who are your neighbors and either harvested the fresh fruits and vegetables from their own gardens or purchased from local growers. These vegetables get to our market so much fresher than having been hauled to storage warehouses and shipped to the local grocer. Therefore, so much healthier for you and your family.

Seasonal fruits and vegetables offered by Leonard and Jasper:

Peas (Purple Crowder and Pinkeye)

Corn

Peaches

Scuppernongs

Watermelons

Butterbeans

Okra

Yellow Squash

Tomatoes

Asian Pears (DON'T MISS OUT ON THESE!)

ONE ASH FARM brings you fresh raw Milk from their dairy cow and farm fresh Eggs, Oatmeal Bread (try toasting this for breakfast), Sourdough Bread, and their Apothecary items including handmade soaps (lye & non-lye)

STELLA has delicious baked goods including Cakes (whole or half), Cookies, Pies, Preserves, Pickles, Jellies & Jams, Corn Relish, and Chow-Chow

JANET always bakes her wonderful Cinnamon Buns, Cinnamon Bread (doesn't last long!) and Sourdough Bread

MARIA offers her handmade Soaps and items she makes from her own sheep wool, fresh Eggs

ANNE has prints of her pen & ink drawings of Edgefield County buildings, notecards featuring her barn paintings, Boiled Peanuts

BRINNALYN with her Quilts, Pillows and other stitched items

JOHNNIE MAE does a lot of canning for you with her vegetables, vegetable Soup & Pickles

ELIZABETH & EDIE – Need AVON products? Come see them on Thursday.

LION'S CLUB House and Warehouse Brooms

SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL MARKET!!!

For more information contact Donna at 803-275-0010 or Anne at 803-480-1093